SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith Copy of a Memo received from the Superintendent of Police, Bangalore, reporting on the occurrence of an infant marriage at Yemaralli in the Devanhalli Taluk on the 17th June 1897.

2. The Police enquiry shows that the parties are Gollars by Caste, that a girl named Timmallamma, aged 6 years, 6 months and 20 days and granddaughter of Gollar Papakka of Kelluguttapalli in the Bowringpet Taluk was given in marriage to a boy named Ramanna aged about 12 years and son of Gollar Papanna of Bedarhalli in the Devanhalli Taluk and that the marriage was celebrated at the Thimmarayaswamy's temple in the village of Yemarahalli, Devanhalli Taluk. The Register of births shows that Yellamma, which was her name at her birth and which was subsequently altered to Timpallamma as reported by the father of the bridegroom, was born on the 26th November 1890.

3. The Superintendent of Police recommends the prosecution of Papakka and Papanna, the grandmother of the bride and the father of the bridegroom respectively for an offence under Section 3 of Regulation No. X of 1894 and I beg that sanction may be accorded to the same.

The Vernacular records of the case together with the Register of births are herewith forwarded for perusal and obliging return

Memorandum in re an offence under section 3 of the Mysore Infant Marriage Prevention Regulation.

Complainant. versus. Accused.

Government. 1. Gollar Papakka residing in Nellugut-lapalli in the Bow-ringpet Taluk.

2. Gollar Papanna living in Badarhalli in the limits of the Viswanathpur Station of the Devanhalli Taluk.

The Police Duffedar of Viswanathpur reported to the Inspector that an infant marriage was celebrated at Timmaraya Swamy's temple in the village of Yemarahalli of the Devanhalli Taluk.

Taluk between a girl named Tiru-pallamma aged about 6 or 7 years the grand-daughter of the 1st accused and a boy named Ramanna aged about 12 years and son of the 2nd accused.

The Inspector proceeded to the spot and examined among others:-

1. Patel Sonnay Gowda of Badarhalli.
2. Joshi Srinivasa bhatta.
3. Archaka Krishnamachar.
4. Vakkaligar Narrjunda.
5. The 1st accused.
6. The 2nd accused.

The 1st said that he was apprised of the marriage only on the 18th June
'897 and that he forthwith communicated the same to the Police Duffedar

Duffedar at Viswanathpur. The 2nd and 3rd who acted as priests and the 4th who was a guest at the marriage speak to the same having been celebrated on the 17th June 1897 and to the ages of the girl and the boy being 6 or 7 and 12 years respectively. The 1st and 2nd Accused admit their having celebrated the marriage and plead ignorance of the Regulation.

The register containing entry of the birth of the bridegroom is not forthcoming. That of the bride is found to contain the name of Yellamma and this the 2nd accused Papanna says, was the name given to the bride at her birth and that she was sub-subsequently called Tirupallamma out of endearment. If this be accepted, the date of the brides birth is seen to be the 26th November 1890, and her age at the time of the marriage about 6½ years.

The vernacular records connected with the case are herewith submitted for reference.
